(2) In these Rules a reference to a section is a reference to that section in the Act and a reference to a form is a reference to that form as published under rule 3.

(3) In these Rules references to the filing of any application, notice or other document, unless the contrary intention appears, are to be construed as references to its being delivered to the registrar at the Office.

Forms and directions of the registrar; section 66

3-(1) Any forms required by the registrar to be used for the purpose of registration of a trade mark or any other proceedings before the registrar under the Act pursuant to section 66 and any directions with respect to their use shall be published on the Office website and any amendment or modification of a form or of the directions with respect to its use shall also be published on the Office website.

(2) Except in relation to Forms TM6 and TM7A a requirement under this rule to use a form as published is satisfied by the use either of a replica of that form or of a form which is acceptable to the registrar and contains the information required by the form as published and complies with any directions as to the use of such a form.

5—(1) An application for the registration of a trade mark (other than a transformation application, which shall be filed on Form TM4) shall be filed on Form TM3 or, where the application is filed in electronic form using the filing system provided on the Office website, on Form e-TM3.

(1A) Where an application is filed on Form TM3 (a “standard application”) the application shall be subject to the payment of the standard application fee and such class and series fees as may be appropriate.

(1B) Where an application is filed on Form e-TM3 (an “electronic application”) the application shall be subject to the payment of the e-filed application fee and such class and series fees as may appropriate, which shall be payable at the time the electronic application is made and if they are not so paid the application shall be subject to the payment of the standard application fee referred to in paragraph (1A) and such class and series fees as may be appropriate.

(2) Subject to paragraph 6, where an application is for the registration of a single trade mark, an applicant may request the registrar to undertake an expedited examination of the application.

(3) A request for expedited examination shall be made on Form e-TM3, and shall be subject to payment of the prescribed fee.

(4) Where an applicant makes a request for expedited examination, the application fee and any class fees payable in respect of the application shall be payable at the time the application is made and accordingly rule 13 shall not apply insofar as it relates to the failure of an application to satisfy the requirements of section 32(4).

(5) In this rule and rule 15 a “request for expedited examination” means a request that, following an examination under section 37, the registrar notify the applicant within a period of ten business days (as specified in a direction given by the registrar under section 80) beginning on the business day after the date of filing of the application for registration whether or not it appears to the registrar that the requirements for registration are met.

(6) Where it appears to the registrar that the period (the “routine period”) within which applicants are routinely notified of the outcome of an examination under section 37 is equal to or less than the period specified in paragraph (5), the registrar may suspend the right of applicants to file a request for expedited examination until such time as the routine period exceeds the period specified in paragraph (5) and the registrar shall, in each case, publish a notice on the Office website to this effect.

Claim to priority; sections 35 & 36

6—(1) Where a right to priority is claimed by reason of an application for protection of a trade mark duly filed in a Convention country under section 35 or in another country or territory in respect of which provision corresponding to that made by section 35 is made under section 36 (an “overseas application”), the application for registration under rule 5 shall specify—

- (a) the number accorded to the overseas application by the registering or other competent authority of the relevant country;
- (b) the country in which the overseas application was filed; and
- (c) the date of filing.

Classification of goods and services; section 34

7—(1) The prescribed system of classification for the purposes of the registration of trade marks is the Nice Classification.

(3) If the application relates to more than one class in the Nice Classification the specification contained in it shall set out the classes in consecutive numerical order and the specification of the goods or services shall be grouped accordingly.

(4) If the specification contained in the application lists items by reference to a class in the Nice Classification in which they do not fall, the applicant may request, by filing Form TM3A, that the application be amended to include the appropriate class for those items, and upon the payment of such class fee as may be appropriate the registrar shall amend the application accordingly.

Determination of classification

9.—(1) Where an application does not satisfy the requirements of rule 8(2) or (3), the registrar shall send notice to the applicant.

(2) A notice sent under paragraph (1) shall specify a period, of not less than one month, within which the applicant must satisfy those requirements.

(3) Where the applicant fails to satisfy the requirements of rule 8(2) before the expiry of the period specified under paragraph (2), the application for registration, insofar as it relates to any goods or services which failed that requirement, shall be treated as abandoned.

(4) Where the applicant fails to satisfy the requirements of rule 8(3) before the expiry of the period specified under paragraph (2), the application for registration shall be treated as abandoned.

Prohibition on registration of mark consisting of arms; section 4

10. Where having regard to matters coming to the notice of the registrar it appears to the registrar that a representation of any arms or insignia as is referred to in section 4(4) appears in a mark, the registrar shall refuse to accept an application for the registration of the mark unless satisfied that the consent of the person entitled to the arms has been obtained.

EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This note is not part of the Rules)

These Rules revoke and replace the Trade Marks Rules 2000 (SI 2000/136), (“the 2000 Rules”). They re-enact, with modifications and amendments of a drafting nature, the 2000 Rules as amended and make several changes of substance in order to give better effect to the provisions of the Trade Marks Act 1994 (“the Act”).

The changes of substance are as follows—

- 1) the period for filing opposition proceedings has been reduced from three months to two months with a right to extend the period to three months subject to filing Form TM7A (rule 17);
- 2) the period for filing a counter-statement in actions for opposition to registration of a trade mark has been reduced from three months to two months and the “cooling-off” period has been reduced to an initial period of nine months but extendible to eighteen months subject to the agreement of both parties (rule 18);
- 3) in actions for revocation (on non-use grounds) the period for filing a counter-statement has been reduced from three months to two months and the proprietor will now have a single opportunity to file evidence of use (or proper reasons for non-use) which the proprietor intends to rely on in order to defend the registration. The period for filing evidence which shall be specified by the registrar shall be not less than two months (rule 38);
- 4) in actions for revocation (on grounds other than non-use) and invalidation of a trade mark the period for filing a counter-statement has been increased from six weeks to two months (rules 39 and 41);
- 5) provision has been made for the registrar to set aside cancellation of an application for registration or the revocation or invalidation of a trade mark registration if the applicant demonstrates that the failure to challenge the proceedings was due to a failure to receive notice of the proceedings. The application to set aside must be made within six months of the relevant decision (rule 43);
- 6) in any dispute between two or more parties an appeal against a decision (other than a decision awarding costs to any party) which is made at any point of the proceedings prior to a “final decision” may only be made independently of any appeal against a final decision with the leave of the registrar (rule 70);
- 7) where an applicant for or proprietor of a trade mark has failed to comply with a time period for the doing of any act (except in relation to proceedings before the registrar involving a second party, or the filing of an appeal to the Appointed Person or in the cases listed in schedule 1) the applicant/proprietor will have the right to an extension of time within which to complete the action provided a request for extension has been made within two months of the date when the relevant time period expired. This provision is required in order to comply with the requirements of the Singapore Treaty on the Law of Trademarks (adopted in Singapore on 27 March 2006 to which the United Kingdom is a signatory and available on the WIPO website) (rule 77);
- 8) where there are deficiencies in an application for registration of a trade mark the period for remedying those deficiencies has been reduced from two months to a period of not less than one month as specified by the registrar (rule 13);
- 9) the period for correction of queries relating to the classification of a trade mark has been reduced from two months to a period of not less than one month as specified by the registrar (rule 9);
- 10) where a right to priority is claimed by reason of an application for protection filed in a Convention country the registrar may determine what documentation shall be filed in support of the application (rule 6);

11) provision has been made for the registrar to set a timetable for the parties to file evidence in proceedings and to direct the form in which evidence must be filed and the taking of oral evidence which follow equivalent provisions relating to proceedings with respect to patents and registered designs (rule 62 and 64);

Subject to the exceptions in rule 83(4) where a new step is to be taken on or after 1st October 2008 in relation to any proceedings commenced under the 2000 Rules, these Rules shall apply to such proceedings from that date.

A full impact assessment of the effect that this instrument will have on the costs of business and the voluntary sector is available from the UK Intellectual Property Office, Trade Marks Law Section, Concept House, Cardiff Road, Newport NP10 8QQ and is annexed to the Explanatory Memorandum which is available alongside the instrument on the OPSI website. Copies have also been placed in the libraries of both Houses of Parliament.
